

Always

Concealing it inside - my weakness and my pride
I can't hide for ever or for always
Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed
Bring it to the surface now and always (yeah)

Always, always - always, always

Fleeing from the Son but there's nowhere I can run
Light is going to shine upon me always
No matter how I tried, there's nowhere I can hide
Light is going to shine upon me always

Always, always - always, always (alright)

It's just my fingers and my thumbs 'til revelation comes It's going to fall upon me always
And if I hide it in my heart, it's just tearing me apart
There will be a purpose in it always

Always (You're always leading me)

Always (I'm going to rejoice in You)

Always (You're always leading me) always (alright)

Always (You're always leading me)

Always (I'm going to rejoice in You)

Always (You're always leading me) always (yeah)

Always, always – shine upon me always

Always, always – shine on me

Always, always – shine upon me always

Always, always – shine on me

Always try to hide but it just can't be denied
