

Dreamin' again

I've got a lot of dreams tonight that I really want to dream
They've been going around in my head for a long time
The man you see before you now – he isn't always what he seems
I've been reaching out for a lifeline

*And many were the hours that I would spend looking for a better day
And I just don't want to pretend that it was easy for me
And many were the roads that I'd walk then, looking for a better way
Then the long and winding road came to an end
And now it's time for dreamin' again*

I've got a lot of songs tonight that I really want to bring
They've been hanging around in my head for a long time
I've got a lot to share tonight so I really want to sing
Maybe someone else could use a lifeline

*And many were the hours that I would spend looking for a better day
And I just don't want to pretend that it was easy for me
And many were the roads that I'd walk then, looking for a better way
Then the long and winding road came to an end
And now it's time for dreamin' again*

Dreams are quite alright if they're taking you somewhere
But it hurts when they don't come true for you
And I don't want to waste my life on old dreams any more
I'm going to give my heart to something true

I've got a lot to say tonight and you really must forgive
If I'm taking up far too much of your sweet time
But I'm feeling different tonight – there had to be a better way to live
I thank God I discovered the lifeline

*For many were the hours that I would spend looking for a better day
And I just don't want to pretend that it's been easy for me
And many were the roads that I'd walk then, looking for a better way
But now the long and winding road's come to an end
And it's time for dreamin' again.*
