

Invisible rhythm

I love your exuberance, your passion for life
Carefree abandon at play
There's a joy that propels you - invisible rhythm
And nothing can hold it at bay

Invisible rhythm nobody can see
I feel that energy stirring in me
A powerful current setting me free
And it leaps to invisible rhythm

Just for a second, then gone in a flash
Bouncing as though on a spring!
Perpetual motion - invisible rhythm
Unstoppable songs we can sing

Invisible rhythm nobody can see
I feel that energy stirring in me
A powerful current setting me free
Leaps to invisible rhythm
Leaps to invisible rhythm
Leaps to invisible rhythm

Like a lamb in the field as flowers are blooming
A natural force leads you on
As you skip to the beat of invisible rhythm
Bursting alive! It'll never be gone

Invisible rhythm nobody can see
I feel that energy stirring in me
A powerful current setting me free
Leaps to invisible rhythm

Invisible rhythm nobody can see
I feel that energy stirring in me
A powerful current setting me free
Leaps to invisible rhythm
Leaps to invisible rhythm
Leaps to invisible rhythm
