

Magnificently different

Magnificently different – so suddenly announced
They speak another language
That strives to be pronounced
Bewildered so and unaware
They do not mean to bless
But awkward strands of beauty
Are beauty nonetheless

Oh yes, oh yes – there's beauty nonetheless

Oh yes, oh yes – beauty nonetheless

Magnificently different – so suddenly arrived
Defying every setback
Determined to survive
Bewildered and bewildering
They have no sense of place
Just orphans with exquisiteness
Etched upon each face

Each face, each face - etched upon each face

Each face, each face - etched upon each face

Magnificently different – so suddenly appeared
From grinding grime and squalor
As if some smoke had cleared
Bewildered by experience
They cautiously draw near
Transcendent sons and daughters
Discover glory here

Draw near, draw near – discover glory here

Draw near, draw near – discover glory here.
